

CANINE "SINGS" AT FIRE ALARM AND CLIMBS LADDERS

Of Course "Spot" Is Popular With the Men of Hook and Ladder 52.

HIS STUNTS AMAZING.

Went Up 70 Feet of Ladder at Recent Fire, but Had to Be Carried Down.

Spot is the dog of Hook and Ladder Truck Company No. 52 in Brooklyn. He was brought into the house by James Crackerjack Murphy, the driver of the truck. But Spot belongs to the whole company now. Not only the firemen, but everybody in the block and around the corner knows Spot and admires him.

In between fires the other day one of the firemen was reading a condensed account of the things one Theodore Roosevelt, lately President of the United States, did between his home in Oyster Bay and the Hoboken pier where he took ship for Africa. When the recital was finished the assistant fireman said:

"That man is the greatest thing in the United States."

"Except Spot," objected Murphy, promptly.

Here are a few facts regarding Spot: He is a coach dog.

He is three and one half years old and weighs thirty pounds.

He sits up and sings when an alarm sounds.

After every fire he kisses Pete, the centre horse and teases him by hanging on his bridle.

He can grab a ball held as high against the wall as a man can reach.

He is so anxious to stay with the company that he has learned to climb ladders. Recently he climbed a series of three ladders at a fire, one of them 20 feet high, the next 15 feet, and the last one 22. But he had to be carried down.

He can also turn back somersaults.

KILLED IN AN ELEVATOR.

James McDevitt Loses Life in Making Repairs.

James McDevitt, a stableman, of No. 789 Seventh avenue, was killed in an elevator in the Park & Thirteenth street, between the third and fourth story of the building.

Edward Casey, of No. 113 East Fifth street, foreman of the stable, was badly bruised at the same time. He was taken to Roosevelt Hospital in one of the grocery firm's wagons. There the police arrested him for criminal negligence.

JOKER'S AUTO BILL GETS IN ASSEMBLY

Safety Rules Compel Use of Bombs, Pistols and Fire Bells.—Must Be Seasonable.

ALBANY, March 25.—Some practical joker in the Assembly introduced a bill to-day bearing the name of Assemblyman Herliok, of New York, amending the motor vehicle law. The bill provides that an discovering an approaching team the automobilist must stop off-side and cover his machine with a tarpaulin painted to correspond with the scenery. Approaching a corner an automobilist "must stop not less than 100 yards from the turn, foot his horn, ring a bell, fire a revolver, hallo and send up three bombs at intervals of five minutes."

Another provision requires automobilists to be seasonably painted, so they will merge with the natural ensemble, and not be startling. They must be green in spring, golden in summer, red in autumn and white in winter.

On motion of Assemblyman J. S. Phillips the provisions of the bill were read during the session and created much merriment.

Employees of the House hustled to the roof to pull down the flag, which ordinarily is hoisted only when the House is in session.

CONGRESS FLAG FRISKY.

Runs Up Pole Without All Before House Convened.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Old Glory got to cutting up "high jinks" over the House of Representatives to-day. During the wind storm that raged over the Capital a half hour before the House met to discuss the tariff bill, the flag was hoisted by the gale out of its halyard on the roof of the Capitol and sprang up the flagpole as if by magic.

Employees of the House hustled to the roof to pull down the flag, which ordinarily is hoisted only when the House is in session.

ALTON B. PARKER STRONG WITNESS FOR SCRUGHAM

Ex-Justice and Presidential Candidate Testifies to High Character.

Alton B. Parker, former presiding justice of the Court of Appeals and once candidate for the Presidency on the Democratic ticket, was the chief witness called for the defense in the trial of George R. Scrugham and Charles Stirrup before Judge Foster in the Court of General Sessions to-day. Scrugham and Stirrup were indicted for conspiracy in connection with the attempt of the International Policy-Holders' Association to overthrow the management of the New York Mutual and Available Life Insurance companies.

Ex-Judge Parker said he was a resident of this city and had been actively interested in the campaign of the International Policy-Holders' Association from the start. He was chairman of the Executive Committee, the members of which worked without compensation and under a pledge to refuse office in either the Mutual or New York Life, in case the movement was successful.

"Mr. Scrugham, I believe," said Mr. Parker, "was present at every meeting of the committee. I learned to know him very well. From my personal knowledge and from what I have been told by Congressman Nicholas Longworth and others, I am free to say that Mr. Scrugham is a gentleman of the highest reputation and character."

"There was no cross-examination. Ex-Judge Parker was followed on the stand by clerks who worked for the International Policy-Holders' Association. They all swore that there was no conspiracy or intent to force the names of policy-holders to ballots as charged in the indictment."
